To Be Like Jesus

Synopsis

"We can have what Enoch had. We can have Christ as our constant companion." The Shepherd knows His sheep. When we stumble, He lifts us up, binds our wounds, and leads us on to victory. By daily surrender to His will we can enjoy sweet communion with God. Our trembling hand in His, we walk side by side through trial and tempest into a future bright with promise. "E'en though the path I may not see, Yet, Jesus, let me walk with Thee." Ellen White knew the Shepherd. She has nourished the Spirit of Millions with her deeply spiritual messages. Emphasizing a different theme each month, this fresh compilation from her pen calls us into a deeper fellowship with God and equips us for the journey. Each devotional is a moment with the Master-another step in an ever-sweeter journey with Jesus.

Ellen G. White (1827-1915) has undoubtedly been the most influential Seventh-day Adventist in the history of the church. She and her husband, James, provided strong leadership as the church was founded and organized in the mid-1800's. Her personal presence and her writings did much to shape and guide Adventism during her seven decades of prophetic ministry. Since her death in 1915 her counsel and insights have continued to direct the Adventist Church. Today millions look to her writings for guidance and motivation.

This is a Devotional! That fact is not clear in the promotion (and one reason I took one star off).

However, once I worked out that this was in fact a book intended for daily devotional reading, I have come to appreciate the rich daily extracts from the writings of Ellen White. That most readings are single, un-ellipsed extracts from her major books or periodical articles adds to the smoothness and integrity of the messages and delivers both familiar words and surprises. The daily messages have been well chosen and are uniformly pointed and uplifting. Topics are arranged by month: January - Communing with God Feb - The Blessings of Obedience Mar - Investing Time and Other Talents April - Exploring God's Word May - The Day that God Made Holy June - Doing the Kings Business July - Practicing the End-time Lifestyle Aug - Relating to the Natural World Sep - Sharing the Good News Oct - Enjoying Good Health Nov (sic) - Worshiping at Home Dec - Repenting, Then Growing These topics do point the reader to Jesus. I have enjoyed portions from a few months on topics I searched for on my Kindle. Now I'm making my way through the book chronologically, with enjoyment. Is it making me more "like Jesus"? I hope to think it has. I've certainly been inspired to become more like Him. There are several disappointments besides not being warned that isn't a book of Ellen White's that I haven't read, (hence only 4 stars):- It isn't formatted like a devotional, it is more like 365 short chapters with no dates to navigate by.- The Table of Contents has nearly 400 entries, rendering it almost useless. It would have been better to just have month-headings in the table. The formatting is not all bad, I really like the un-abbreviated source appended to the end of each reading rather than obscurely footnoted. Page formatting is good, even the page number is there (as in most White Estate Kindle books) but very unobtrusively, quietly after the source information. All up, if you are an EGW fan and want something short and sweet to attract you to Jesus each day, then you will enjoy this book.

I have been so blessed and encouraged in my walk with Christ. I highly recommend this devotional to anyone seeking a closer walk with Christ.

Excellent book to encourage Christian growth and a greater understand of the love of God. I cannot recommend it highly enough. It's a "devotional" book--in that there are 365 readings, one for each day of the year. I am just finishing it for this year and will be hard-pressed to find another one as enlightening.

I love the daily devotional with a subject theme for each month. It has helped me grow tremendously in my Christian walk by bringing Christ to me personally!

This devotional is strength and encouragement for all who need the promises of heaven. Take this to heart and apply the daily reading to your day

It's a privilege to be like our Lord Jesus Christ. I recommend it greatly.

Wonderful Daily Devotion. Another great one by Ellen G. White inspired by the Holy Spirit!
