Oh, I found this travel guidebook so helpful and after finishing the entire read of this book I was so pleased. Actually I will need to go Germany soon and for the sake of knowing more about that city I picked this book two weeks ago. Throughout this read, I have come to know especially where I can go while traveling Germany. This travel guidebook helped me to learn & know about major cities, traditions, sights, hotels, restaurants and so many things about that city. Though you can get these info various Google searches but here I got all the info & essential traveling guides in an one place so I will definitely recommend this book.

This is an good instructive guide relate Germany. This will be helpful for those peoples, who are planning to visit to Germany. Through reading this book you are able to know which places should to visit and charming places in Germany. Highly recommend this book.

This is a helpful book for those who wants to make tour of Germany, the book beautifully explore this country and it's weather , hotel, restaurant and all necessary information are available. I just get this book because i am going to make a plan of tour in summer vocations of my children thanks.

This is a magnificent book. It was unfathomably useful when I was taking my first visit in Germany. Furthermore, I enjoyed the history and culture segments, it helped me to better value my excursion. This travel manual helped me to learn and think about significant urban areas, customs, sights, lodgings, eateries thus numerous things about that city.I have never been to Germany yet this book made the craving for me to visit the lovely urban areas and investigate the astounding spots of this nation

It is a well organized book packed with detailed information and would be a great help to anyone planning a trip to Germany. Color illustrations. Lots of maps. Everything you would need. This book covered all the bases. It contains general information and details on major and smaller cities. It has a good map with times by train between many cities in the country.

Looking forward to my next international trip! Germany has always fascinated me and with this travel guide, all the more I am convinced to go to this place next year! A delightful read indeed!

I do love traveling and I think this book would be a great companion to have an enjoyable trip to Germany. It's straightforward and good expectations after traveling. Nice one!

I have never travelled outside the country but I'm planning to have one. This travel guide is an ideal one for me. I like going to Germany since I want to visit my friends there too!
