Who Was Muhammad Ali?

Synopsis

Cassius Marcellus Clay, Jr. won the world heavyweight championship at the age of 22, the same year he joined the Nation of Islam and changed his name to Muhammad Ali. He would go on to become the first and only three-time (in succession) World Heavyweight Champion. Nicknamed "The Greatest," Ali was as well known for his unique boxing style, consisting of the Ali Shuffle and the rope-a-dope, as he was for the catchphrase "float like a butterfly, sting like a bee." He was an uncompromising athlete who brought beauty and grace to a very rough sport and became one of the world's most famous cultural icons. Read Who Was Muhammad Ali? and discover "The Greatest."

Customer Reviews

James Buckley, Jr. is a sportswriter for children. He has written more than 50 books about sports for kids, including titles on baseball, football, NASCAR, soccer, the Olympics, and more.

This was one of two books that my 8 year old read this book for part of his research for his black history month project. Lots of great information.

Purchased for school reading. Good boom

Love this series

Nice story

We love the "Who is" series since it gives our kids the opportunity to learn about incredible personalities from history and the current world.

Magnificent!

Great series. Good information for struggling readers.

I have a special education student who loves these books. He has not read this one yet, but I am sure it will meet his expectations.
