"The easy-to-use guide is illustrated with beautiful photos and useful detailed maps." —The Nation"Having grown up in Hong Kong, Simon Ostheimer knows the city intimately, from its busy harbour to its chilled-out beaches, its historic neighbourhoods to its startlingly modern CBD. And it's this passion and affinity for the city that makes the Tuttle Travel Pack so useful." —Vacations & Travel Magazine"Shortlist the best spots and sites of Thailand with this compact and informative guide written by a well-traveled expat." —Travel Life Magazine

Simon Ostheimer grew up in colonial Hong Kong as the son of a British civil servant and has always felt more at home in Asia than anywhere else—exploring the streets of Saigon, wandering through the museums of Singapore, playing on the beaches of Boracay, and eating char kway teow at the food stalls of Penang during family holidays. This probably explains why, after an abortive attempt at life in the U.K., he later became an Asia-roaming editor and writer, spending several years working at magazines in China (Shanghai, Beijing, and Hong Kong) before trying Kuala Lumpur and then Bangkok. When he is not island-hopping across the region, his greatest passion is trying new Asian street food—he feels that the multicultural mix of people found across the continent makes for the most enjoyable cuisines in the world.

Very informative, by a long term resident and experienced travel writer who actually lived in HK while editor at 'Time Out', HK. The format, firm binder and great handy but strong, removeable Map mean it's perfect for the independent traveller and visitor.

This is a good concise book of the highlights of Hong Kong, including brief descriptions of the outlying islands. However, not as good as DK's Top Ten Hong Kong Really enjoyed this book. Simple and well written gave me a good overview even though outdated

Hong Kong is famously onion-esque and while there is a huge amount to do there's equally a lot that can easily be missed. Ostheimer, a native Hong Konger, reveals the elements of the city that are accessible and enjoyable and just that little bit out of the ordinary. We've all had conversations with someone who has just been to the same place as we have only they did and saw some key things that we missed and it grates not a little. Follow Tuttle Travel Pack Hong Kong and you won't miss a thing. The author's authority is clear as is his adoration for the city that for so long he called home. See and do some of the tips in this book and you'll probably have a similar affection for the place.

Hong Kong maybe small but there are lots to do in this country city. Tuttle Travel Pack Hong Kong gives you the must see sights and must do things so you can plan your trip right. Certainly a must have for a traveler who wants to explore HK and even for businessmen who only have a day, two or three to roam around the busy city!
