Customer Reviews

During the Christmas season in Connecticut, you don't have to look far to find the cherished aspects of the holiday, from one-of-a-kind ornaments and baked goods to spectacular light displays and classic Colonial houses draped in snow. Bringing it all together for the first time in one volume is A Connecticut Christmas, a full-color celebration of the spirit of Christmas in a quintessentially New England state. Celebrated television and radio reporter Diane Smith, who has told the stories of the people and places of Connecticut for two decades, highlights the many joyful things to see and do in Connecticut during the holidays, and she profiles some of the remarkable people who make the holiday season brighter for visitors and Connecticut residents alike. Through a compelling blend of inspiring, heart-warming essays and stunning color photographs, A Connecticut Christmas presents fifty of the state's traditional and lesser-known holiday scenes, sounds, specialties, activities, and more—including snow games, Christmas cookies, chocolate Santas, real-life Santas, artisan craft shows, holiday home tours, music for everyone, colorful theater productions, charity festivals, and individual expressions of goodwill. Underlying all is the message common to Diane Smith's books: Caring, positive people make a difference.

Sure to lend the holidays an added magic touch, A Connecticut Christmas will be a treasured keepsake all year round. --This text refers to an alternate Hardcover edition.

Christmas in Connecticut is a Colonial house with candles in the windows and evergreen swags 'round the door. It's a sleigh ride in snow, white churches, snowy town greens, and homes aglow with festive lights. It's the pageantry of The Nutcracker ballet, the magic of candlelight walks, and the excitement of seeing Santa on parade. Christmas in Connecticut is all this and more. Celebrate the spirit of Christmas with Positively Connecticut television journalist Diane Smith, who takes you on an unforgettable tour of the holiday season in this quintessentially New England state. Here's your chance to discover exuberant light displays, visit fantastical tree festivals, shop at artisan craft shows, and stroll through holiday open houses. You can enjoy medieval merriment and colorful theater productions, take a ride on a restored train, or sample Connecticut-made candy. Here, too, you can learn of the traditions of Christmas past and present and meet some of the remarkable people whose hearts overflow with the spirit of the season. Visit Connecticut with Diane Smith and experience a holiday you'll never forget. (8 3/4 x 11, 160 pages, color photos)

Love this keepsake book A++

I love this book. It will make a great Christmas present. The book arrived very quickly and in good condition. Thank you very much.

I expected more.

Bought this a gift

great! just fine, I will recommend it to my friend. The good thing about this product is that I can now cut thin slices of my homemade fresh bread! as a gift to Tommy,

This magnificent collection of beautiful color photos of Christmastime throughout Connecticut is sure to bring back memories. Also for those who wonder if Connecticut is really as special and magical as it's made to be in the movies. Yes-of course it is! ...and the photos in this book will show you why Christmastime in Connecticut has inspired movies! HINT: Best when read next to the fireplace or tucked into bed with a cup of tea.
