Who Was Charles Darwin?

Synopsis

As a young boy, Charles Darwin hated school and was often scolded for conducting “useless” experiments. Yet his passion for the natural world was so strong that he suffered through terrible seasickness during his five-year voyage aboard The Beagle. Darwin collected new creatures from the coasts of Africa, South America, and the Galapagos Islands, and expanded his groundbreaking ideas that would change people’s understanding of the natural world. About 100 illustrations and a clear, exciting text will make Darwin and his theory of evolution an exciting discovery for every young reader.

Who Was Charles Darwin? Who Was Charles Darwin? For my wonderful and curious son, Dimitri, who loves to ask questions – just like Charles Darwin – D.H. To my sisters, for their unwavering belief that anything is possible and always cheering me on N.H. Acknowledgement Special thanks to Delbert Hutchison, Assistant Professor of Biology, Whitman College, for sharing his enthusiasm about Charles Darwin and making helpful suggestions on the manuscript. Any errors are my own. Who Was Charles Darwin? Charles Darwin took a five-year trip around the world on a ship called the Beagle, but he liked staying home best of all. He lived in a small English village where he raised pigeons, played with his children, and pattered in his garden. Although he lived a quiet life, Charles Darwin started a revolution a revolution of thought. People have always wondered how life on Earth began. When Charles Darwin lived, most people in Europe and America believed God created the entire world in six days, just as it says in the Bible. But Charles Darwin was not most people. The Beagle voyage taught him to be a true scientist to look closely at nature, question everything, and think in a new way about how life on Earth started. He showed how living things could naturally change, or evolve, over a long period of time.

Love these books. My son, who is 9 has been reading them for a little over a year now and this book is wonderful. I must say that this one is not one of his favorites. He is a history junky, lol. He so far seems to love the Jackie Robinson, Teddy Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln, Robert E Lee, What is the world series the best as a 8 and 9 year old. I also read these to him in the evenings and I really enjoy them as a 40 year old father. I have learned so much from them as well. Sometimes I read them before or after my son in order to have an educated discussion with him about the subject of the book. I really also get alot out of them as well.

Daughter loves the book, nice addition to the "Who Was" series

So far we have not found one who was books that was not very interesting

Great simple biography about a great scientist.

Well satisfied with purchase and service.

Very well written, good for kids, very interesting to read - I got few Who was series and my daughter loved them

Great book! Science teacher approved :)

Great book series to read for my daughter. I usually learn a lot too
