Deborah Clarke has captured the essence of the questions that Millennials face when preparing for a lifetime career. I highly recommend getting a copy for your son, daughter, sibling, niece, nephew, etc. as they look towards their future. Deborah provides real life lessons that we all can learn from, even those of us who are moving out of our careers into our next great adventure. The exercises she recommend really help you to fine tune your life goals and helping you to stay focused to reach them. A must read for anyone!

Deborah is a very talented writer. A Millennials Guide To Live Your Dream is empowering and insightful. I really enjoyed the hands on exercises and tools included. Great read!

Deb did a great job keeping the important principles simple and easy to understand and implement. I would love to have access to a book like this in my HS and college year. I would recommend my nieces and nephews to read this book! It is a simple and practical books for those inspired to be happily successful :-). Great job Deb!
