Picked by my kid from the book fair this is one of my favorite books to read the kids (and theirs too). They are a fan of the spooky haunted theme and it captures the imagination while fixation their minds on counting and taking in and processing information. Quick satisfying read for the babies. Kids love for it to be read time and time again.

Got this for my 2 year old who, since Halloween, has loved all things "spooky". He loves this book and I do too. It's fun to read and has a nice rhythm so you can also sing it. The first month we got it, he wanted me to read it every night at least twice. It's now part of our regular book set I read each evening to him before bed.

This is both of my kid's favorite Halloween book. I read it as "five little monkey jumping on the bed", they want this book every night even now (about 3 months after Halloween). Since we read it too many times, now my older one who is 4 years old remembers every single word in this book and pretend she can read it by herself !! So funny...!! It was fun to find hidden goats on every page, and count them. Such a cute book

Cute rhyming counting book with a ghost theme. The kids love it and can't repeat the verse with me.

Great book that my niece really loves to read during the fall.

This Halloween book will be read all year at our home. It is already a family favorite.

Super cute book for younger kids.

Love this very cute story. We read it year-round, not just at Halloween. Update: In addition to the cute story and fun rhymes, we've started using this book to help our 3yo count, identify numerals, and do very rudimentary math. He identifies the large number on each page, counts the ghosts on each page, and then we discuss if there are X ghosts, how many will there be when one leaves? It's a great tool in addition to being a great story.
