30 Things Every Woman Should Have And Should Know By The Time She's 30

Synopsis

Featuring advice, wisdom, and observations from an array of prominent and beloved women, 30 Things Every Woman Should Have and Should Know by the Time She's 30 is an essential guide (and perfect gift) for women on the brink of thirty--and for those who are already there! Fifteen years ago, Glamour published a list of distinctive yet universally true must-haves and must-knows for women on the cusp of and beyond the age of thirty titled, "30 Things Every Woman Should Have and Should Know by the Time She's 30." It became a phenomenon. Originally penned by Glamour columnist Pamela Redmond Satran, The List found a second life when women began to forward it to one another online, millions of times. It became a viral sensation, misattributed to everyone from Maya Angelou to Hillary Clinton--but there's only one original list, and it stands the test of time. Quirky and profound, The List defines the absolute must-haves (#11: "A set of screwdrivers, a cordless drill, and a black lace bra") and must-knows (#1: "How to fall in love without losing yourself") for grown-up female happiness. Now, Glamour magazine has gathered together its editors and an incredible group of notable women to expand on each of the items on The List in wise, thoughtful, and intimate essays. Kathy Griffin meditates on knowing when to try harder and when to walk away. Lisa Ling explores the idea that your childhood may not have been perfect, but it's over, and Lauren Conrad shares what she has learned about what she would and wouldn't do for money or love. Other personal insights come from Maya Angelou, Rachel Zoe, Taylor Swift, Katie Couric, Portia de Rossi, Kelly Corrigan, ZZ Packer, Bobbi Brown, Padma Lakshmi, Angie Harmon, and many more. Along with essays based on The List, writers share their feelings about what the milestone of turning thirty meant to them. 30 Things Every Woman Should Have and Should Know by the Time She's 30 is the one book women of all ages will turn to for timely and timeless wisdom.

Pamela Redmond Satran is the author of the new novel The Possibility of You and the forthcoming humor book Rabid, as well as a creator of the website nameberry.com. She continues to write Glamour magazine's monthly Glamour List column with cowriter Kim Bonnell.

Bought this book a few weeks before I turned 30. A lot of it was great - good things to hear before you approach 30 and good reminders about what is really important! But - including authors who ARE NOT YET 30 - epic fail. I will not listen to Taylor Swift during my "holy crap I'm turning 30" meltdown.

I just love this book. I have three daughters, 21, 30 and 31. They just love this book. Good for any age. I am 59 and I thoroughly enjoyed it. A timeless treasure to give your daughters. Book arrived in great condition and sooner than expected

It's all about perspective. Some can choose to have a gray cloud over the idea of turning 30, this book helps clear those thoughts. Life is a journey, nothing better than reading of others experiences open and honest. Beautifully done.

Purchased for my niece who is turning 30 this year. She likes it.

This book is such a good and easy read. It made me cry, laugh and think. It's less of a checklist and much more about being happy where you are in life at any age (but still recommend for women around 30 especially late 20's). I loved all the stories from different women and finding out at the end what they had accomplished now. This book helped me feel thankful for my past and excited for the future- even for turning 30!

Cute book - great advice and a fun read.

Sometimes women need to really need to hear what other women think about certain things and how we can share with others to help each other out. This book shares these feelings.

This was not only informative, but also entertaining. Thoughtfully written that even my step daughter enjoyed reading. I'm glad that I got it.
