Craig Groeschel has written another terrific book. I haven't stood behind him watching him make his decisions, but I've seen him stand behind the ones he's made, both the easy ones and the hard ones. These are true words from a humble guy who lives what he talks about. (Bob Goff, author, New York Times bestselling Love Does) Not many people can write a book that makes following God look easy. But that's exactly what Pastor Craig

Groeschel has done in this down-to-earth, practical, life-giving message. This isn't just another book about decision making; it's more about the story of our whole lives that our daily decisions create. We don't have to live by chance; we can live on purpose, on course, and part of the larger story God is weaving on the earth. (Judah Smith, lead pastor, The City Church; author, New York Times bestselling Jesus Is) I believe our daily choices take us into our lifelong destiny. That's why I am so excited that Craig Groeschel's book Divine Direction challenges us on those small choices. This book will help you to see even the smallest decisions through the lens of God's purpose as he calls you to step into his divine direction for your life. As someone who has learned the hard way about the power of good and bad choices, the principles in Divine Direction really resonate with me. If you're ready to get out of your rut and make better decisions, Craig's message is a great place to start your new journey. (Dave Ramsey, bestselling author; nationally syndicated radio show host) This book by Pastor Craig Groeschel is a must-read for anyone who has been stuck not knowing what God has planned for their life or how they should be listening to his lead. I'm so thankful for people like Craig who can come alongside us with wisdom, humor, and insight! (Jefferson Bethke, author, New York Times bestseller Jesus > Religion) When I have a big decision to make, after consulting God and my wife, the first person I go to for guidance is Craig Groeschel. His God-given ability to isolate the important issues and distill biblical wisdom into action steps is second to none. Divine Direction is your access point to these life-changing insights. (Steven Furtick, pastor, Elevation Church; New York Times bestselling author) Craig Groeschel has written a practical yet spiritually grounded book that is certain to help you decide on your next steps in life. In Divine Direction, Craig unpacks seven decisions you can make today that will influence the stories you tell in the future. (Andy Stanley, senior pastor, North Point Ministries) There was once a form of capital punishment practiced in China called ling chi---death by a thousand cuts. None of the incisions were a big deal, but together they were lethal. In Divine Direction, Pastor Craig Groeschel will help you avoid living a life of a thousand cuts. (Levi Lusko, senior pastor, Fresh Life Church; author, Swipe Right) We often want to know what God's will is for our lives. The answer may be a little different for each of us, but Divine Direction will give you a great framework for finding out what your story can be. With simple, practical, achievable goals, Craig helps us see the little steps that make a big difference in our lives. (Kyle Idleman, author, Grace Is Greater)

The word "practical" embodies everything about this book. When faced with big challenges and big decisions, it's so easy to become paralyzed and bogged down, not knowing where to start or what to do. The way Groeschel starts this book off giving practical, actionable things we can do to start making positive steps in our lives absolutely hit home. Then he spends the second half of the book outlining how to make sure these steps have a lasting effect on the lives of OTHERS while at the same time building OUR faith and trust in God. This book is a blessing to anyone no matter where you are in your life.

"not only is God with you in the storms, he will also use them for his purposes in your life. No matter how terrible it may seem in the moment, God always has a higher plan and a good purpose because he loves you more than you can imagine." This quote and the whole book has opened my eyes to so many things. Encouraging words being taken to heart. I've got some Divine direction to pray about. Thank you Craig

Each chapter got better and better.! The chapter on serving was powerful to me... Am I a Consumer or a contributor? I also thought he nailed the chapter on connection also. We are not meant to be alone. Very easy and quick read that I pulled several great insights from that will impact my life and the decisions I make.

This is a great book to help get some momentum with becoming a better version of you. The tips in this book are very simple and achievable with some perseverance and dedication. I strongly recommend reading this book. (I have purchased multiple copies to give to friends as well.)

Each piece taken by itself was not profound ... seven decisions that will change your life ... but as with a LOT of things, the whole is greater than the sum of the parts When you put it all together ... WOW! An out of the park grand slam home run! I haven't read every one of Craig's books, but this one hit me in several places where my life is needing movement ... The right book for me at the right time? Or when the student is ready, the teacher appears? Not sure which applies more or that it matters. It was a book I needed to read now and I will refer back to it over the years ahead. Buy several ... and be prepared for the list of people you will want to give it to ... don't plan to lend it to someone, you won't get it back. It's that life-changing!

I'm not an big self-help or spiritual book guy, but this book was tough to put down. I started reading it at a rough time in my life and felt like God was speaking to me through this book every time I pick it up. Regardless of if you are facing a big decision/valley in your life or just trying to grind through the day to day, I think this book will speak to you in the same way if you approach it openly and seeking God.

The first decision you need to make is to buy this book. This book will challenge you, encourage you and have you engaging in all of your choices and decisions not just coasting. Craig Groeschel guides you through a process that will help you listen and learn where God wants to take you next in your life. Do you feel like change is needed in your life or are you not sure if you should keep on doing what your doing. This book will help you open your heart wider to Gods direction in understanding what needs, or not needs to happen in your life. My husband and I read this book together and it helped us in this chapter of our life and into our next one. This is not a book you just read, it is a book that has you participating and making changes, big or small, that will make you a better person and closer to God.

My wife can't stop reading this book
