Higasa Akai is the creator of The Royal Tutor.

I will admit this series is a little odd, but at the same time I find it amusing. We have the loli-type teacher who is much older than he looks (his age is not disclosed), and a reverse-harem of bishonen princes that would make any fujoshi-fanfiction writer want to pair the guy off with any of them. Truthfully, I started reading because it is about a teacher, and I am glad I did. While the series is rather cliché, it is an enjoyable read nonetheless. The characters are common, the stories are similar to others, but for some reason the series is cute. Seeing the characters interact is fun, and any teacher who is willing to put up with all of their wacky personalities has got to be the reason I like what I am reading.

This volume will hook you in and won't let you go. As the cover would have you guess this one is mostly about Prince Licht. We get introduced to some new characters, and we also get some guy busting scenes. The crux of the Manga will revolve around Prince Licht, and his background, no we get some nice screen time for the King. This volume also introduces the Antagonist of the Story.
