Customer Reviews

Having bought this for a first-grader and then realizing it was a little ahead of her time, I nevertheless thought the puzzles interesting and challenging. However, one would have to break the spine to have it lay flat enough to use easily; would have even considered tearing out the pages had she been old enough to enjoy it. Content: good. Format: not so much,

My granddaughter and I work on these together. She is 6 years old and just finishing Kindergarten so of it is things she has never heard of. It is a great way for kids to learn.

Grandson tried to work my crossword puzzle but found it too hard. He doesn't have the age to have the knowledge. Got him this for Christmas and he loves working them.

Loved this product. Can do these crossword puzzles and have fun with my aging friends. I also keep the crosswords in my purse when I have long waiting periods at the doctor's etc. Will purchase more of these products in the Trip Payne series.

My daughter is 7 and these puzzles are right up her alley. She has already enjoyed several hours with the book.

My 8 and 9 year old kids love these. They are real crossword puzzles - not "acrostics" or such. The clues are varied and reasonably challenging, but easy enough that they are not too frustrating.

My 7 and 5 year olds do this book, with a little help from us. They are really great for learning and and a fun crossword for them to do when while my husband and I do the crosswords from the newspaper.

Grand daughter loves it
