The Dove Shooting Guide To Argentina

Synopsis

The first and only photographic guide exclusively depicting the best Dove Shooting locations and lodges in Argentina. An amazing journey chasing Doves throughout this South American paradise captured and narrated by world renowned hunting writer and photographer Tony Townsend. A must have book, for anyone who is thinking about Dove Shooting in Argentina. Through the images and words of Tony Townsend, The Dove Shooting Guide to Argentina is a unique opportunity for hunters who have not yet travelled to Argentina to become acquainted with this very special place. It is also a chance for those who have already visited, to access privileged information that will make their next trip even more successful. The Dove Shooting Guide to Argentina is a 248 page visual and technical survey of the best hunting locations, lodges and outfitters in this South American paradise. Take a guided tour of Estancia Los Chañares, Estancia Sierra Brava, Estancia Los Ombúes, Estancia Los Laureles, Estancia La Guarida and Reserva La Colorada, hunt with Hayes & Hayes Outfitters, Miles & Miles, Four Seasons Adventures, Feather Hunting Argentina, David Denies Wingshooting, Manuel Lainez, and understand why the author proudly claims about one of his stops: "The quantity of birds seen over the five days confirmed my view that if the inclination was there to shoot one or two hundred boxes a day, it was possible." •

Customer Reviews

This was written a while back, so all of the costs listed are wrong. With that said, its fantastic for a first time hunt....

Helpful information for first-timers to Argentina.
