Exploring Egypt: A 10 Day Journey Around Cairo, Luxor And Aswan

Synopsis

Dear World Traveller, before securing that magical adventure, Exploring Egypt – a 10 day journey around Cairo, Luxor and Aswan (including Nile cruise and visit to Abu Simbel) will reveal all you need to know to get the best experience possible from this holiday destination popular among travellers. Written in a day by day account, essential information is provided on where to go, what to see and what to expect from each of these cities, timeless tourist attractions and a cruise on the Nile. In over 10,500 words and accompanying pictures this book contains indispensable tips for an Egypt holiday, facts about Egypt, dealing with local customs, advice on encountering unwanted attention and reveals historical Egypt facts. It is a practical book for anyone planning or thinking of visiting Egypt with the Nile cruise in mind and will enlighten the visitor to the mystery and wonders that lie beyond its culture, the pyramids and tombs. This book describes four places in detail and how to structure your time to benefit from all of them over 10 days, even having time for relaxation! Written directly from the experiences of the authors the book contains honest and reliable information that most of the travel guides do not mention. There is also important advice on medical matters, money and visas.

Customer Reviews

This book gave good, concise information about travels in Egypt. The more you know before you go, the better your vacation will be.

The information provided looked like a journal of a vacation rather than a useful document for selecting and photographing the historic sites.
