Customer Reviews

Theme parties are a way to move beyond cocktails and conversation to an evening with pizzazz. One dozen adult parties are discussed, featuring such themes as Wagons Ho (with invitations designed like wanted posters), Faded Fads (hula hoops and limbo are ideal activities), Great Entertainers (everyone comes dressed as a favorite performer), Scandals (tabloid gossip is at the heart of this party), '50s/'60s/'70s TV (everyone guesses TV theme songs), and the Cold War Party (with rooms decorated like a bomb shelter). Each party includes suggestions for invitations, costumes, activities, prizes, and dance music; these suggestions can be used as a framework or to get those celebratory juices flowing. Jennifer Henderson

The one-and-only guide to throwing, fun, wild and unique theme parties at home. Funny, practical, and inspiring, Rock The Casbah can help turn any theme into the life of the party.

"Rock the Casbah" was a hoot. As a professional party planner, I wish I had friends who were as willing to play as the authors friends undoubtedly are. If you have friends who will dress up for a theme party and get in the spirit, this book is full of ideas that can be easily recreated in your own home or apartment...on a budget. Read and enjoy! Phyllis Cambria, Bobby Rodriguez Productions, Inc.

The book was such a nugget for me to find. I have been looking for a good party game book and THIS IS IT! Complete start to finish guides for each party include: invitation ideas, decorations, food and even music. FIVE STARS all the way!
