Book by Pearce, Jean

Had one of these for years and just bought a copy for my brother. Best guide ever. Let's you be your own guide and learn a bit about the history of neighborhoods. Even if the exact features described may have changed over time, you can still use the guide to get a feel of the place, learn the interesting history behind an area's name, and just walk around and discover for yourself what you will find that day when you step into that little corner of Shitamachi and Narita. Use a current map as a companion, but most guide books can't tell you such interesting things as you'll learn from this little volume.
