Mike Lowery, creator of the Doodle Adventures® series and The Kid's Awesome Activity Calendar, is an illustrator whose work appears in everything from greeting cards to children's books. He lives with his wife and daughter in Atlanta, Georgia.

bought this for my kindergartener. She ADORES the gazillion stickers that it came with, colors each month's pictures, and eagerly does the activities. SO glad I bought this. She also tends to be anxious and wonder when things are happening, so this easy-to-read calendar is a great addition to her room. She can write/mark when big events are coming up and also commemorate memorable days with the celebratory stickers that it comes with.

This is the best calendar I've ever bought! My 4-year-old loves to decorate it (with the included stickers and by filling out the activity areas that contain mazes, open-ended comic strips, and do-it-yourself stories). I love that the paper is thick enough that markers and pens don't bleed through. Also, the boxes are plenty big enough to fill with daily appointments. I will definitely be buying these each year.

This is our second Kids Awesome Activity Calender and I will purchase another one for 2018. I hang this calendar in my kids room and record their activities, test dates, appointments, etc. When they ask "Mom, when are we going to see Dylan?" I respond "Go look at your calender!" It has plenty of room for me to write what I need to and for them to add their two cents, which usually includes playdates I have yet to agree to! They enjoy decorating each new month and adding stickers as we go.

My kid loves this calendar, drawing part of the picture for each month, adding stickers, and marking special days. Each month has a little bit different activity that helps stimulate their creativity. Spaces are large enough to make some notes on the dates. Excellent work in a simple package.

My 9 yr old son loves drawing and art. He was so excited about this calendar! He has scheduled his own camps and friend's birthdays on the calendar, not to mention adding drawings and counting down the days until school is out. Love all the extra stickers. It is really a great way to get kids involved in their own planning and time management!

My 8 year old loves this calendar. This is our second year to own one. She likes the jokes and stickers and it encourages her to keep track of her own activities and things to look forward to.

Such a great calendar for kids. Helps my 6yo better grasp the week and month, and she can see when something is coming up. She loves the monthly activity and even the chore chart. I do wish there was something for a weekly activity - she takes dance and Girl Scouts - other than 'practice.'

My son is still young but he enjoys interacting with this calendar, i'll definitively buy this next year
