Whether you're visiting for the first time or magnetically drawn back to these seductive islands, "Rhodes & the Dodecanese" is the essential guide to the area. Filled with up-to-date information on the best places to stay and eat, detailed maps and travel itineraries, helpful predeparture advice and a handy Greek/English phrasebook, Lonely Planet's new "Rhodes & the Dodecanese" is your best bet for discovering these mesmerizing islands. "Rhodes & the Dodecanese" features 38 detailed maps; special section on Rhodes' medieval Old Town quarter; tips on the best places to hike, windsurf, sunbathe and swim; lodging options for all budgets, from beach camping to ancient monasteries; practical advice on inter-island ferry and hydrofoil travel

This guide really did become our bible on our recent trip to the Dodecanese...we found ourselves saying over and over 'well, the guide says...' and, 'check in the guide book.' Nearly all the restaurant and lodging suggestions were right on, and the maps were sufficient for what you need. If you want to do a vacation just in the Dodecanese, I highly recommend this book!! The only reason I didn't give it 5 stars is that it is a bit outdated by now, with prices still in drachmas.

This is just a question: why is the price for this book $63.63? Let me know if it was just a typo, please.
